Cain & Abel

And Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the Lord. And she again bare his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

And in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the Lord. And Abel, he also brought the firstlings of his flock and of the fat thereof. And the Lord had respect unto Abel and to his offering:

But unto Cain and to his offerings he had no respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell. And the Lord said unto Cain, Why are thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen? If thou doest well, shall thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door.

And Cain talked with Abel: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel and slew him.
Genesis 4:1-8 KJV

ARTIST INSIGHTS & COMMENTS

This image should be easy for you to find. Cain is sitting, center of painting, gazing down and to his left. In his right hand Cain holds the bloody rock used to kill Abel; who lies dead at Cain's feet, stretched out on the ground with a mortal head wound.
