We are Healed

He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities, the chastisement of our peace was upon him, and with his stripes we are healed.

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened his mouth not: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her sharers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.
Isaiah 53:5-8 KJV

Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his live a ransom for many. Matthew 20:28 KJV

ARTIST INSIGHTS & COMMENTS

This painting brutally illustrates the painful and bloody last hours of Jesus' life. Pilate had him flogged with leather whips lashed with pieces of bone at it's end; painfully ripping through the skin creating bloody deep wounds, depicted by the red drops and multicolored stripes throughout the painting. And to add insult to injury the Roman soldiers sadistically pressed a crown of thorns on his head (painted center top) and arrayed him in a regal robe of purple as they struck and spat on him, exclaiming, Hail, King of the Jews!
